Hi! How's it feel to be a Senior?
I think it's great. It will be even better when we walk down that stage one week from today. Then we will be officially out of here and on our way!

This last year has really been fun - that's because we made it that way. Without you I think this year would have been another typical year. I'll always remember P.E., English (Yuk),

STUDENT LIFE

Dear Students,

We wish to extend to you an invitation to the 1985 Hawk. This is just a brief letter telling you what you might find under its cover. We would like to welcome you to this book which has been put together for your pleasure. It is our hope that we have captured some of the great things that went on here at NCHS this year. Some might not think that NC is exceptional, but once you go through this yearbook, you will find what North Chicago High is all about because that is our purpose. Inside, you might see pictures of you and your friends doing some things you shouldn't have been doing, quiet moments you shared with that special someone, school activities in which you participated, relaxation, and, of course, your mug shot. We would like to welcome you to our city's 75th Anniversary. There are exclusive pictures on the anniversary activities. We also want to welcome all new students to our school, and we hope you have enjoyed the school year so you can tell the students coming up what a "super" school this is. We sincerely hope this book has captured the best of memories for you. To all graduating seniors we truly hope this book has a lot of good memories for you because this was your year. Please hold onto the memories in this book because they belong to you. The Hawk Staff personally wishes the senior class a remembrance of great times past. This is the Golden Year — 1985.

STANDING OUT

ALMOST PARADISE

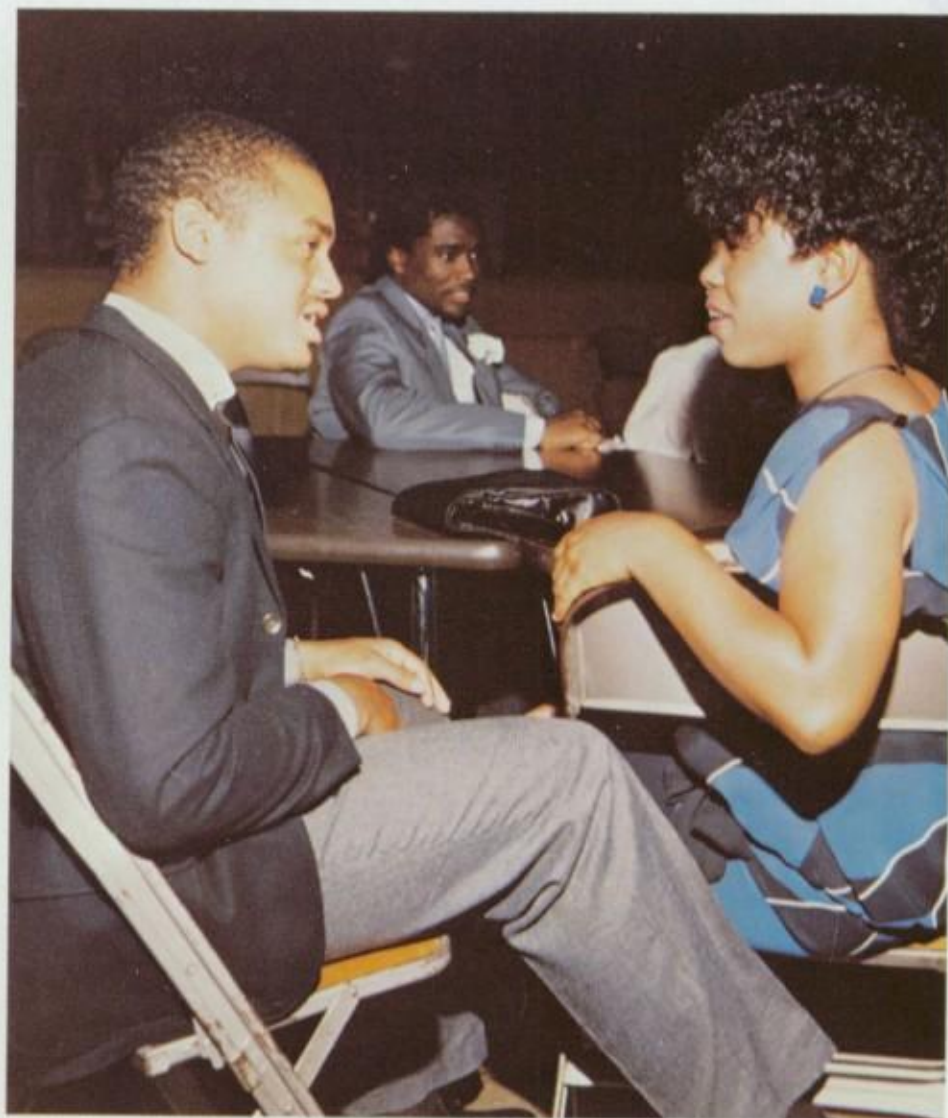

Sparks of light pierce the sky
With noises loud and shrill,
Fantastic colors of red and white —
The crowd grows quiet and still.

Excitement mounts and tensions ease,
The celebration has begun.
This glorious week of community pride
And people having fun.

For those who don't know
What is going on,
And those who came to see,
There is no need to wonder anymore,
It's our 75th Anniversary!

THE HOSTAGE

DRAMA 1985

S P O R T S

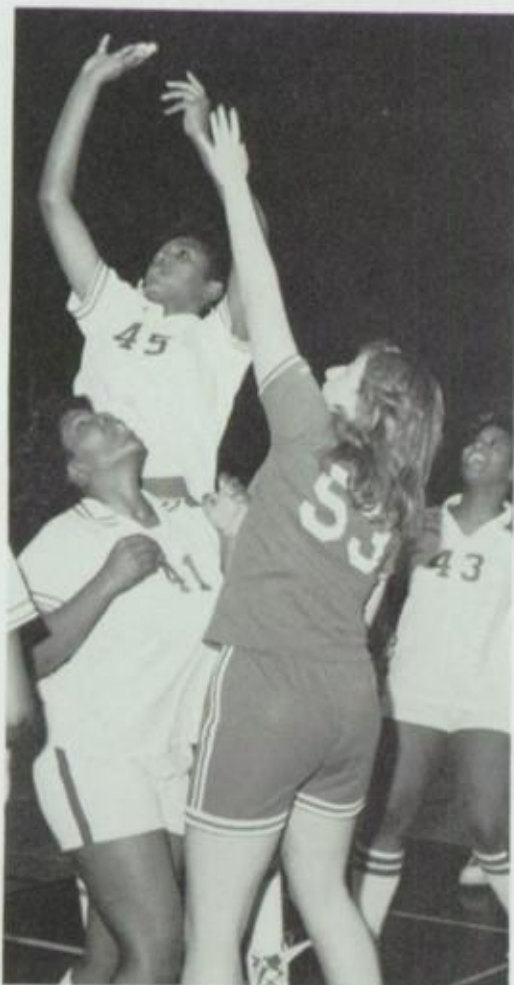

To: The Athletic Department of N.C.C.H.S.
From: All-American University

Since the body is a terrible thing to waste, physical education is right now!

It has been brought to our attention that there are several talented North Chicago athletes who are prime candidates for athletic scholarships. If these athletes meet our academic requirements admission to our university is assured. May we extend an invitation to your young people to visit our campus and apply for athletic scholarships.

Our athletic department has one of the finest coaching staffs in the U.S. All of our coaches take a personal interest in their athletes. All-American University also offers counseling to athletes who might have problems adjusting to college life. There is academic aid for students having study-habit problems. We have an excellent weight training program helping athletes develop their capabilities. The athletic department offers a 9-week introductory course to freshmen. The course provides additional information that will aid students in their adjustment to college life. In addition, All-American has a superb teaching staff.

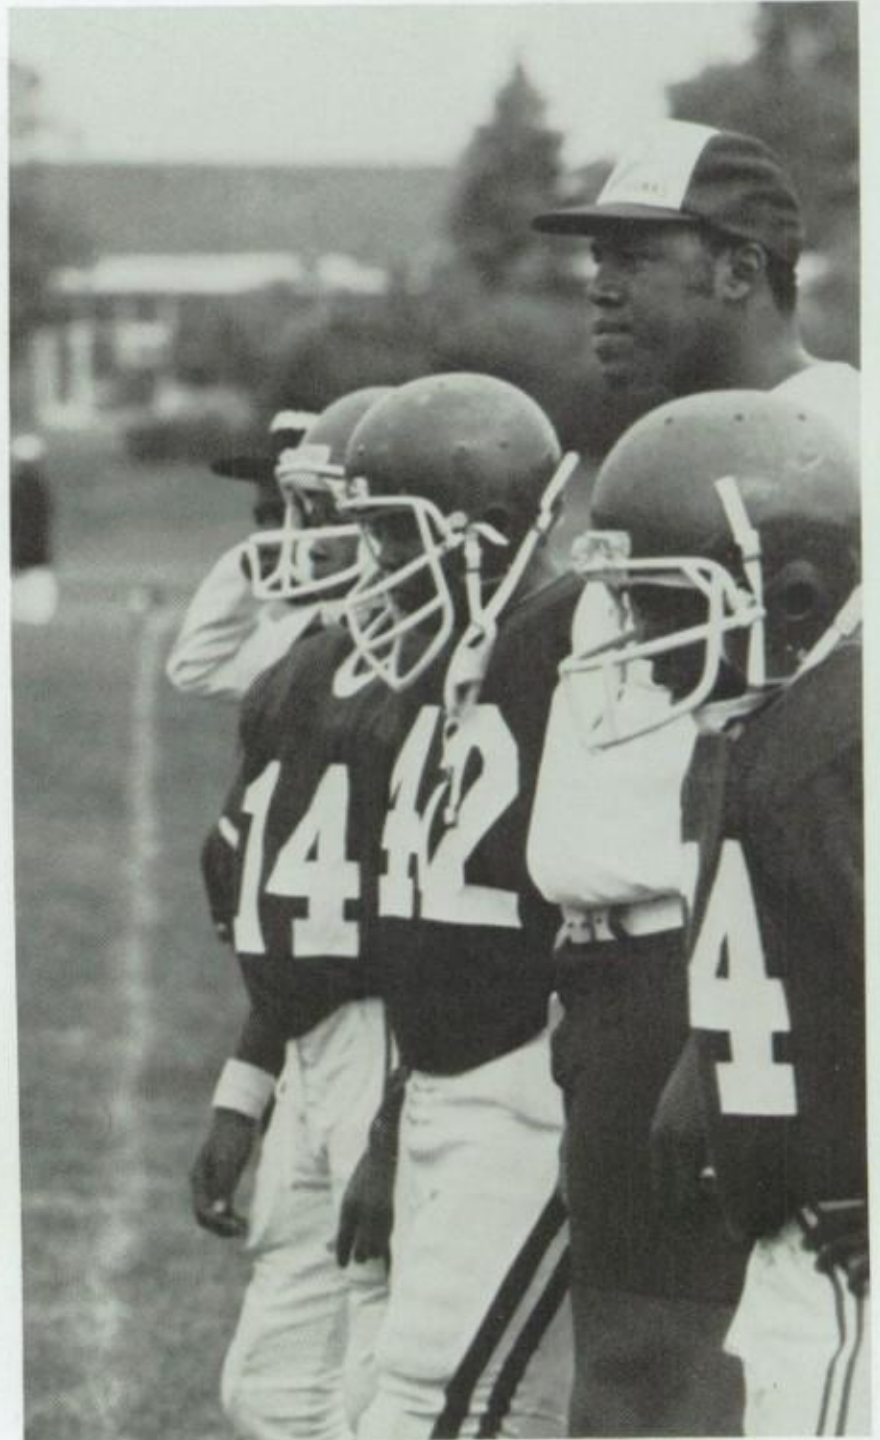

Finally, it is our hope that you will take a few minutes to prepare a letter listing outstanding students that you would recommend. Remember! The body is a terrible thing to waste. Physical education is right now!

A Team Within A Team

The sophomore-freshman team was faced with the challenge of having a new coach this year. George Kapsala was forced out of coaching due to health problems. The new coach, Mr. Decker, was faced with a real challenge. He had to take on the responsibility of coming to a new school and being head of a football team. Although they were low in numbers, there was much talent on the team. Outstanding players were Quarterback Aubrey O'Bryant, Running-back Mark Beasley, Defensive End Mark Roman, Wide receiver Jimmy Coles, Cornerback James Stovall.

Coach Decker stated, "The most frustrating thing about the season was that the players attitude and determination didn't peak during the season." Attitude and determination were important factors in having a good season, which we didn't. One of the high points of the season was the Antioch game. It was a major accomplishment defeating a powerful team like the Sequoits. The other games could've been won with more leadership and fewer mental mistakes.

We lost a couple of games we shouldn't have lost, but I can tell you that when the classes of '87 and '88 get back together we are going to turn somethings out!

Aubrey O'Bryant
Quarterback #10

Our record did not really show what our potential was. On paper this was the best team put together. Why then, did we not reach our potential? Lack of coaching? Coaches not knowing what to do? Wrong!! Coaches can only teach. Players do the learning and most of all the execution. Players must be dedicated in order to reach their full potential. This means extra training like lifting weights during the summer. We had 15 percent attendance. Attendance at practice is required. We had 17 percent attendance for the season, which means we had an average of 22 out of 34 players attending practice. Most absences were followed by notes from parents. Nevertheless, this didn't help us on Saturdays. Oh, yes! We had a number of players who never missed practice, who came on time, who were dedicated and who worked hard. What little success we did have was the result of their labors. We were in every game we played except Niles North. Fenton, Antioch and Warren were tough opponents, but our toughest opponents were ourselves.

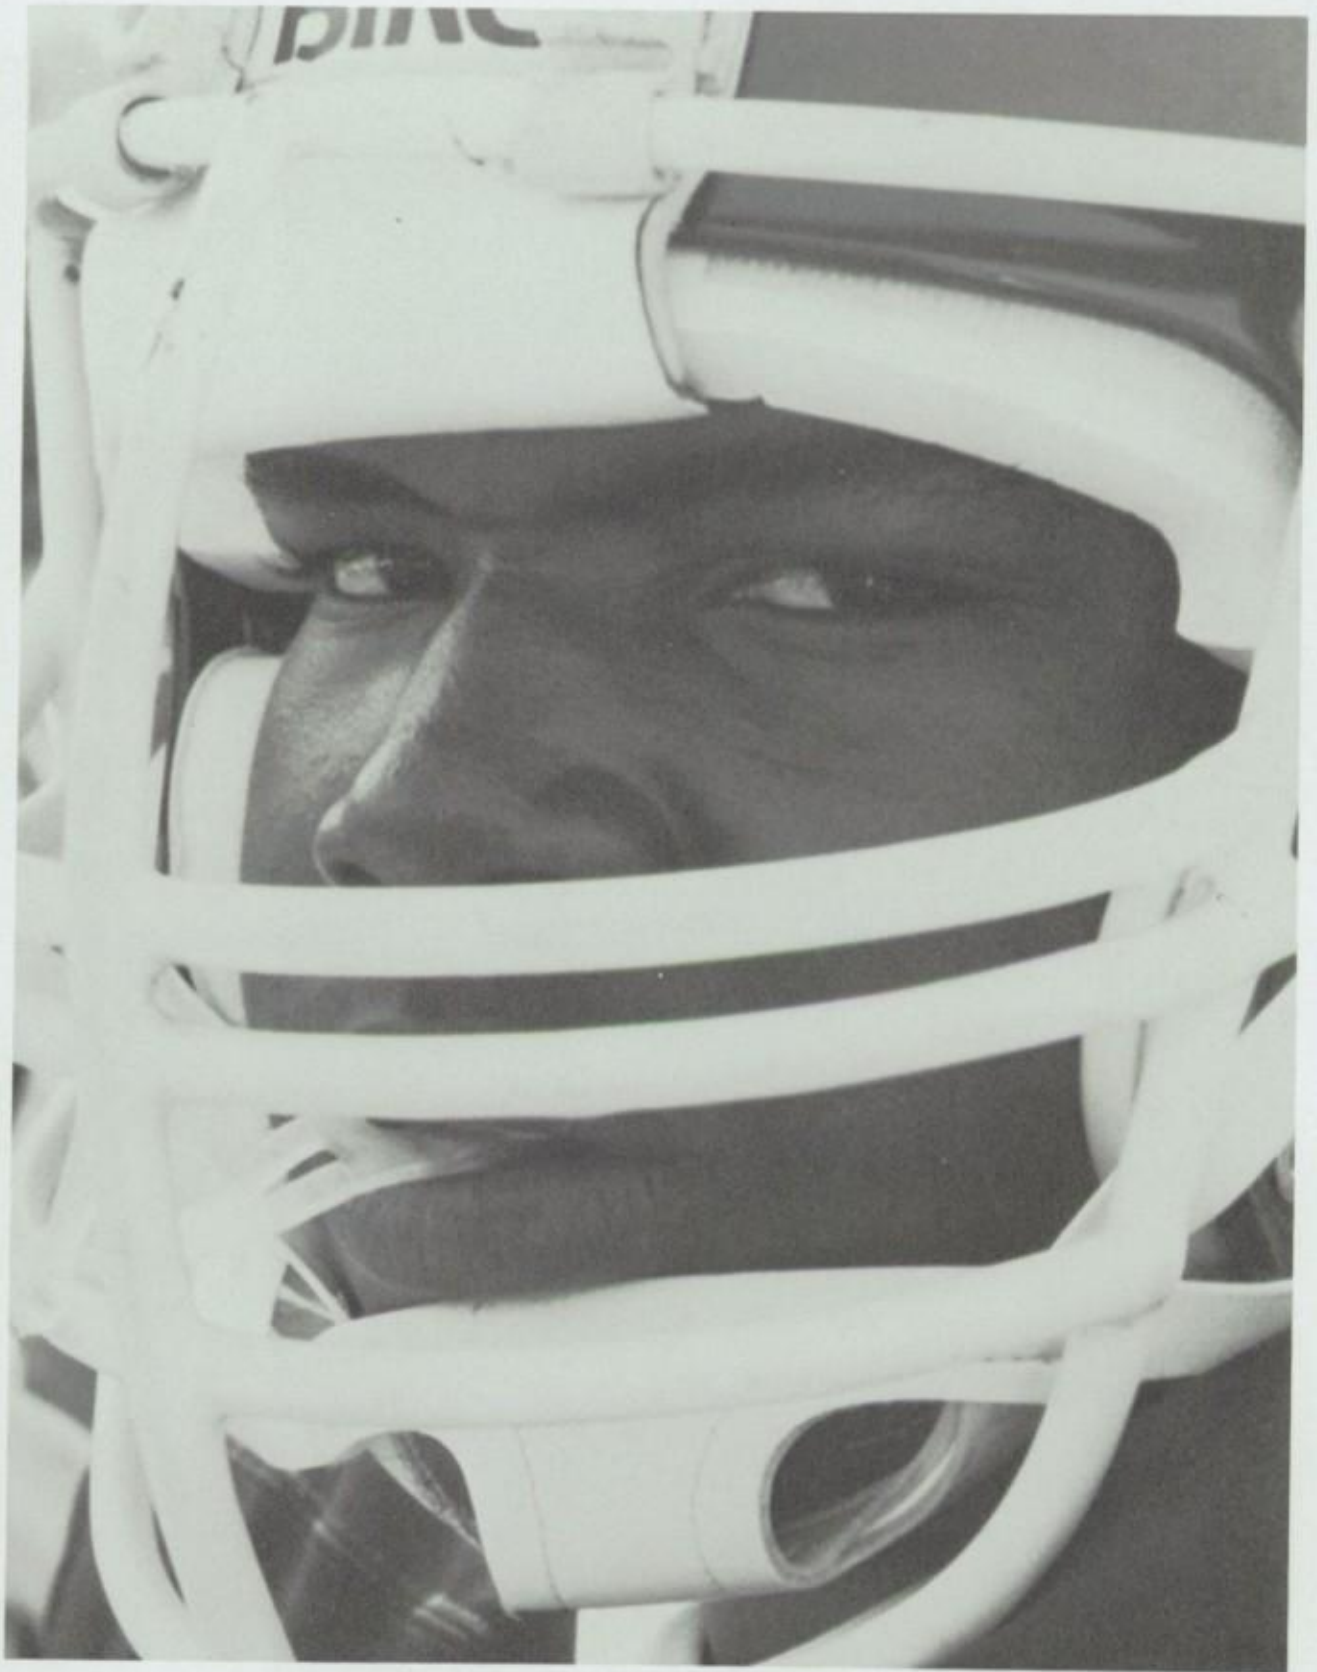

Varsity Football Team: (first row, left to right) Co-captains S. Collins and C. Taylor. 2nd row: F. Eubanks, C. Morris, T. Adams, K. Bell, T. Stovall, K. Smith, A. Pitts, J. Harris, G. Robinson. 3rd row: K. Sandahl, O. Linder, M. Sanders, M. Keener, S. Holmes, E. Smith, V. Earl, M. Wright, M. McCall, P. Jones, Manager, E. Bones. 4th row: Coach, A. Jones, L. Crawford, O. Bledsoe, R. Clark, D. Griffin, D. Harden, D. Dorsey, T. Franklin, W. Robinson, S. Woods, D. Smith, S. Jones, Coach, R. Brothman.

Hawks Are "Superbad"

Cheerleaders must smile. Monica Griffin gives a big smile.

Managers Kim Robinson and Tracy Nabors play a very important role in keeping everyone together.

New cheerleaders were added after football season. Chalanda Thompson, Colene Plamore, Tawn Woods, and Sheryl Laing.

Hail to the red and the white! Janina Patterson cheers the Hawks on.

Express! Captain Felicia Keener expresses herself with a victory split.

Togetherness is the key to success. Monica Griffin and Theresa Stripe show unity.

"We got the team you wish you had!" NC cheerleaders were more enthusiastic this year because the team had six more girls than last year. Manager Kim Robinson commented, "The girls cooperate with each other more." Unlike many other organizations the girls were more of a unit and not a group of individuals.

Returning seniors were Tracy Listenbee, Felicia Keener, Janina Patterson, and Monica Griffin, while the newcomers were Theresa Stripe, Kareema Penny, Sheryl Laing, Chalanda Thompson, Tawn Woods, Aletha Gray, Arnel Jones, and Tammy White. Ms. Cochran was the sponsor this year and last year. The originals had experience, leadership, and good sportsmanship to give the other girls. As a unit they developed togetherness.

The highlight of the cheerleaders' season was the cheerleading competition at Lakehurst Mall. For the competition they did three cheers: Express, Victory, and Fight. They also danced off of the record, "Don't Stand Another Chance" by Janet Jackson. Although they didn't place, they did their best.

Dionne Mason sets the ball for other teammates.

This year's Varsity Volleyball team had many disappointing moments. Its record for the season was 0-9. Rebecca Scott's explanation for this was, "One of our major problems was adapting to losing some key players due to personal reasons." Though the season was not successful for the team, there were still positive outlooks from the players. Loretta Rigwood commented, "We didn't have too good of a season, but we enjoyed ourselves."

Expectations were never reached, but togetherness was. Coach and players were disappointed, but team pride remains intact.

Danielle Broyles dives to make the save.

Kandy Nichols plans to smash the on-coming volleyball.

"Improving is Consistency"

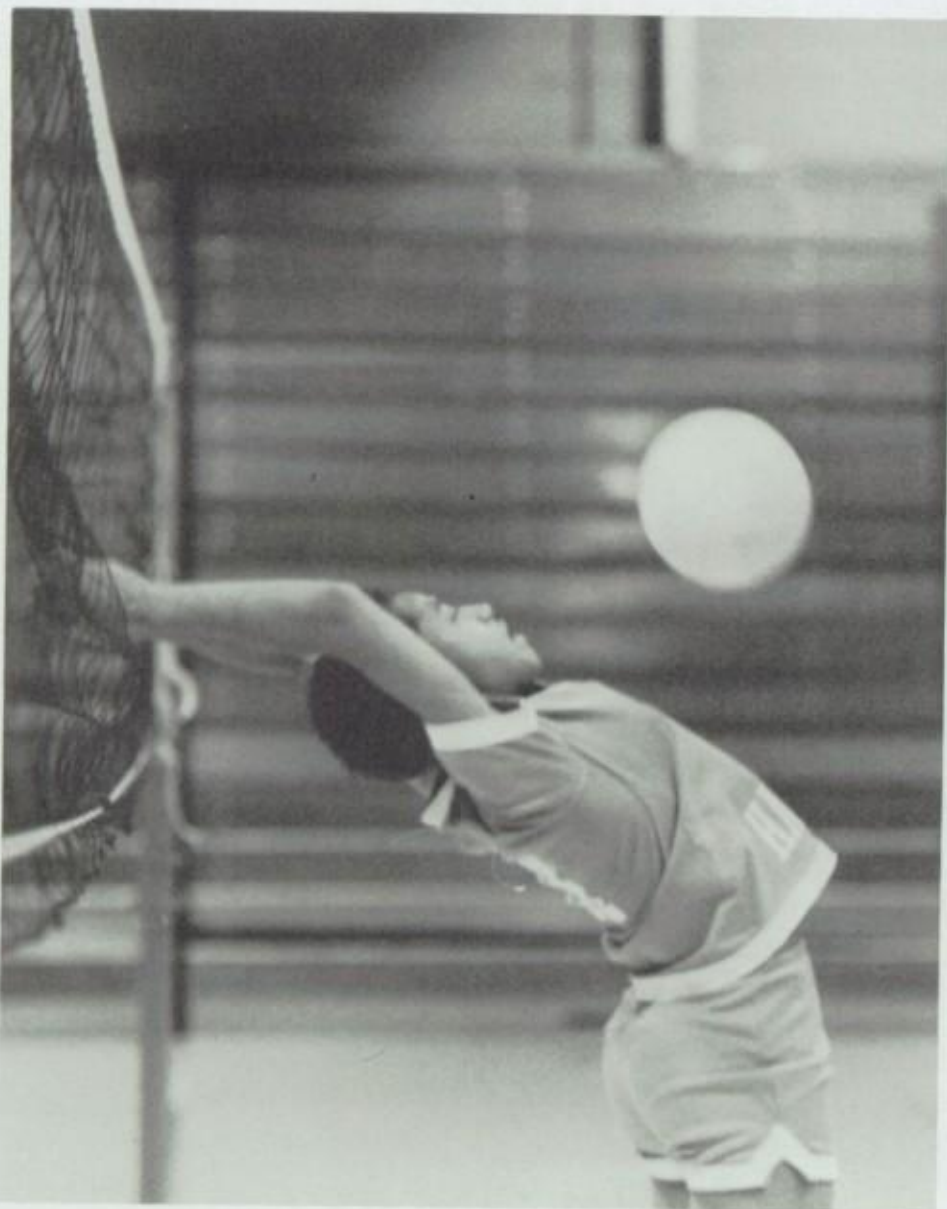

Last year's season was hurt by the lack of girls out for the team. A lot of girls had no interest in the sport of volleyball. Not this year! A large number of girls showed up, more girls came out for the sport, and we filled two squads — J.V. and Varsity. Since we had two squads, the J.V. lacked a coach and a couple of games. Most of the conference schools thought we didn't have a J.V. team, but the girls changed all that and gave our young ladies several games to play this season. At the last minute they found a coach, Mr. Roachon, who also taught J.V. basketball two years ago. The team felt he was highly qualified for the job. So the girls thought all their problems were solved. No! There were more to come. It seems that the team's lack of interest in the sport sent them to a winless season. In spite of the girls 0-7 record, they came very close to winning in one game against Niles North. They lost 15-8, 15-10. Team member, Sheryl Laing said, "They just gave up. Everyone started playing for themselves." Even though they didn't gain any wins, they gained experience. Sonia Laing said, "I learned how to serve, pass and set," but if she had this to do again, she would "start off with a whole new warm-up procedure with more passing and serving and less running." The coach, Mr. Roachon, repeated constantly, "improving is not winning, improving is consistency." Another strong point, he felt, was, "I believe in the team, but they didn't believe in themselves." A good aspect was that the team appointed Sheryl Laing the "MVP".

Wrapping up the season, I guess it is not really a total loss because the girls learned something! Also, in spite of lack of support of fellow classmates of the school, they still gave their best! Good luck and success to the team in the future. Team members are: Letcia Avecado, Sheryl Laing, Chalanda Thomas, Sharonda Dubose, Barbara Satsinsky, Martice Moore, and Sonia Laing.

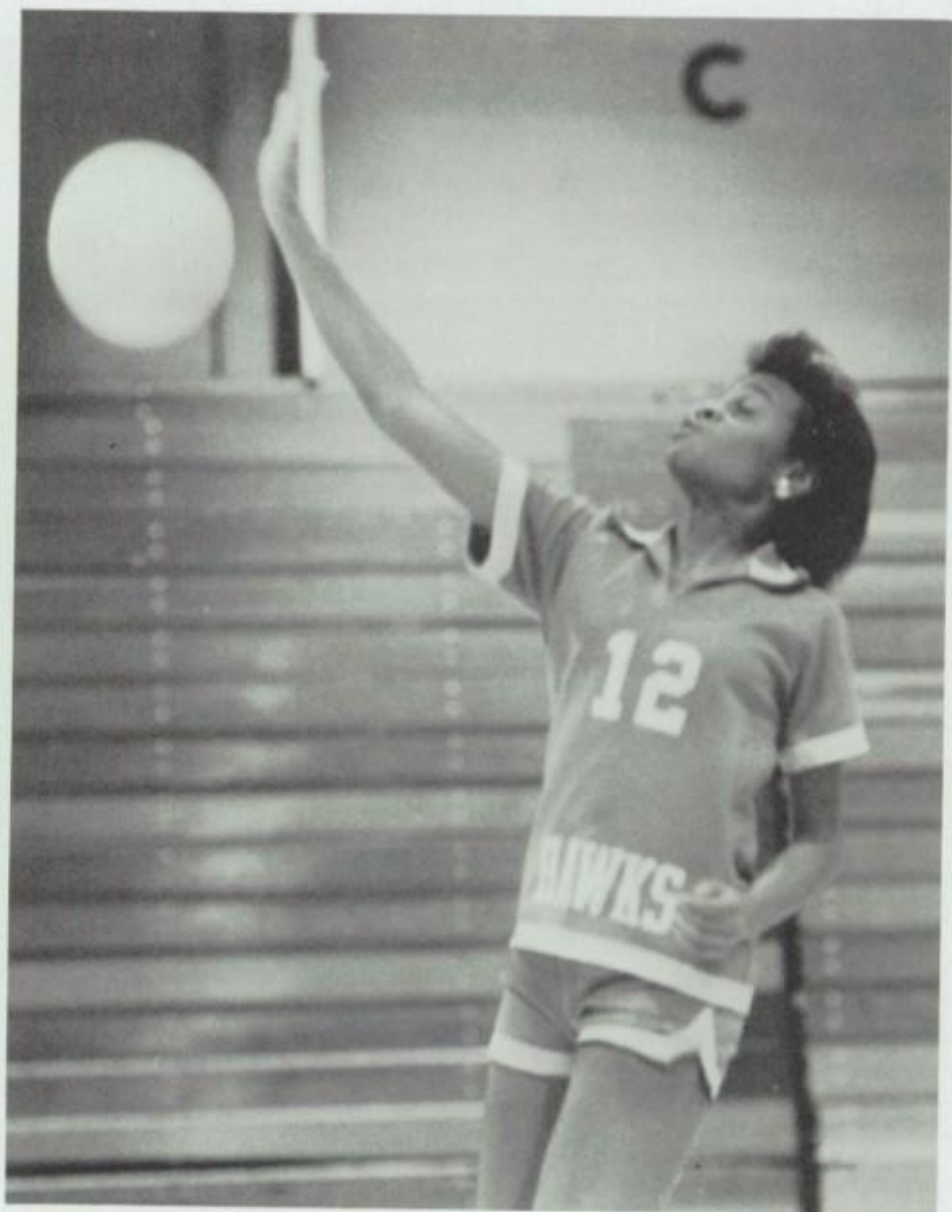

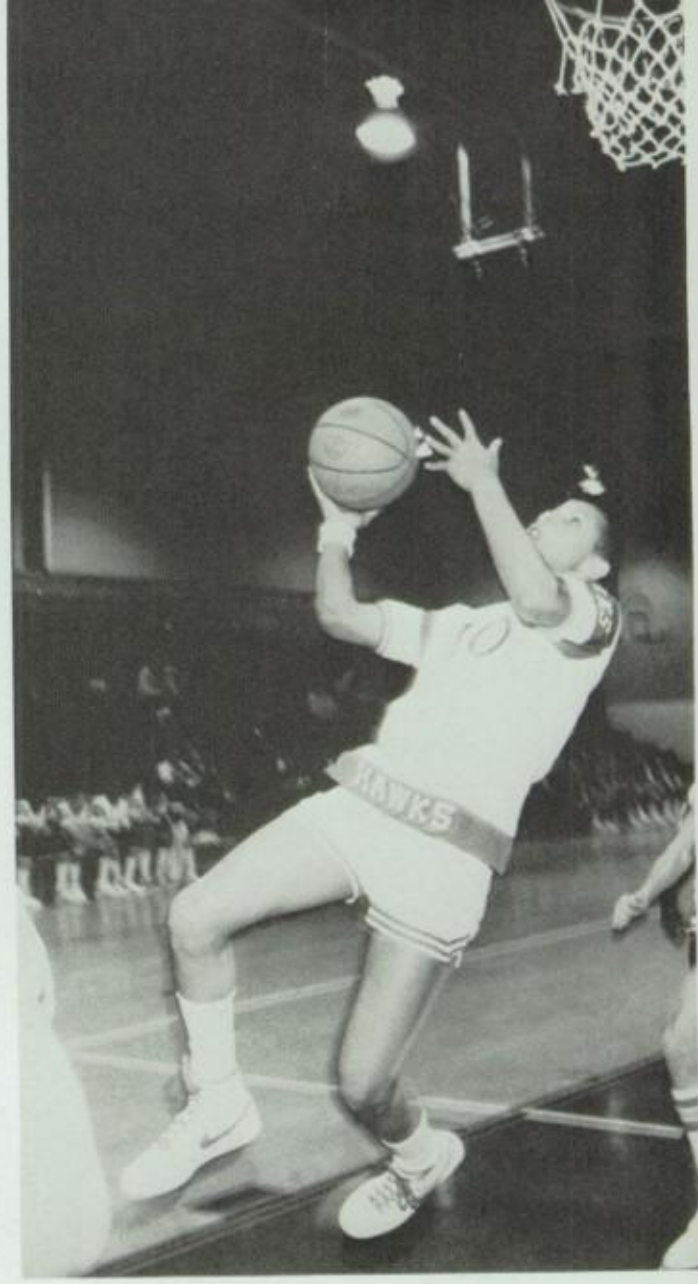

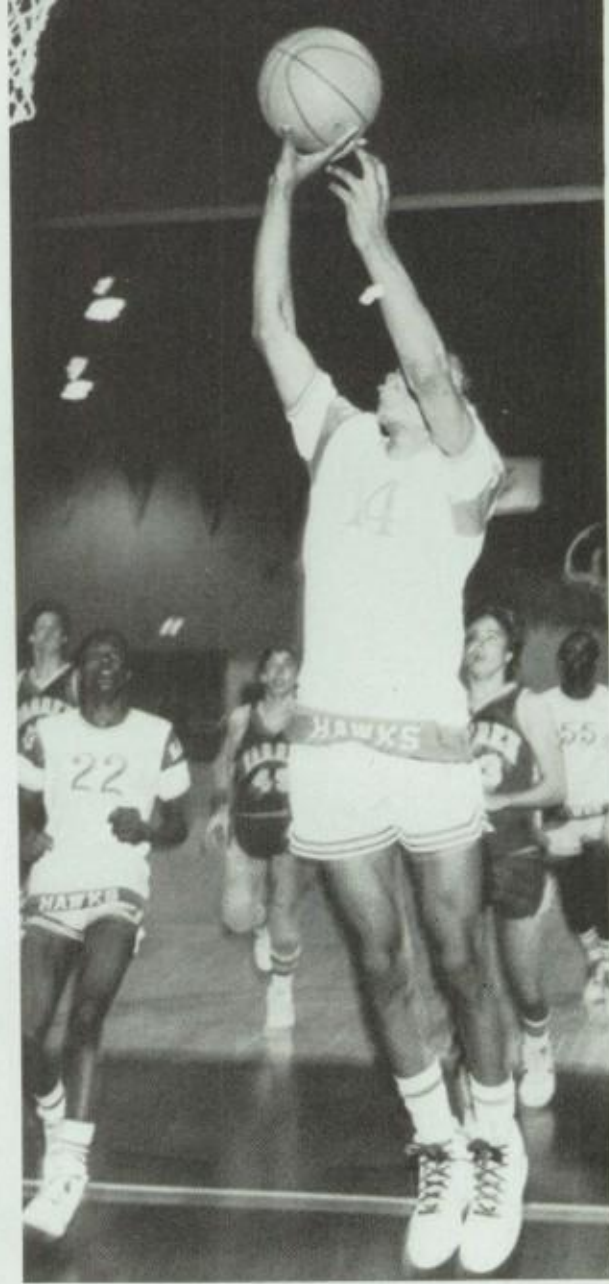

Pursing her lips, Barbara Stainsky attempts a pass.

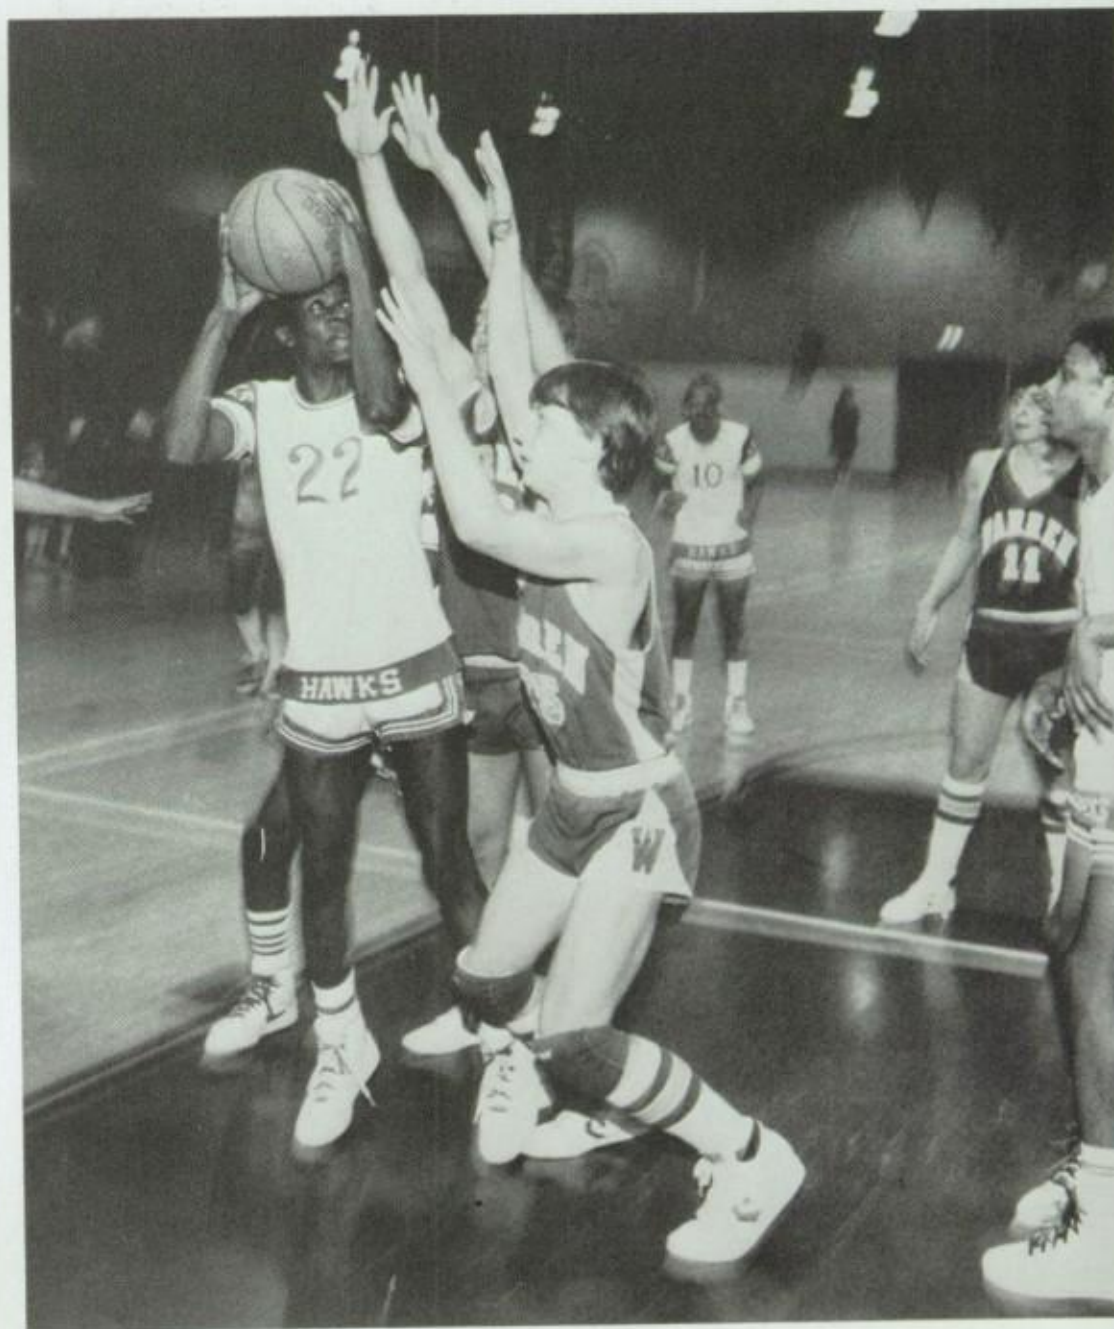

Sharonda Dubose does a backbend to help her team for a point.

Martice Moore tries to spike for a "kill" on her opponent.

Shooting a high percentage shot is the key to a winning record for the "Baby" Hawks. Keep on hustling, guys!

New Breed Comes In With A Roar

This year freshmen sports were reinstated after being cut from the budget in 1981 because of financial difficulties.

The freshman basketball team got off to a very good start winning its first five games. Unfortunately defeat came later on in the season. Freshman James Stovall was asked what was the most memorable win for the team. He responded, "I liked winning against area teams like Waukegan East and West because there is a big cross-town rivalry." One of the things that enabled the Hawks to win big games was their ability to handle pressure situations.

Attitudes played a major role in winning also. Often times the team was on a positive high note. Ab Dixon commented about his teammates' attitude, "Everybody was fired up because we won the majority of our games." The support of parents and fans sparked the freshmen's will to win.

Outstanding players on the team include Ab Dixon, James Stovall, and Jimmy Coles. A freshman team with a positive attitude shows hope for a future varsity team.

The Magnificent Seven

This year the "Mini-Warhawks" had an uplifting season. Coached by Mr. Bob Eschmann, the team went from a depressing record to a most impressive one.

The Mini-Hawks started off the season winning their first two games, which obviously proves that the team had some force and had really worked together. After a loss or two, the team came back showing tremendous force. Soon, they had a record better than the varsity.

Even with only seven players, Mr. Eschmann took the team and made them practice and work extremely hard until they were one. They became so powerful that they even topped Libertyville. Beating this team, which at the time was number one in the conference, gave our guys the confidence that was long needed.

Mr. Eschmann, who has lived in Indiana and Chicago, taught the team a unique way to play. His experience as a player for the Wabash basketball team combined with his "street ball" in Chicago created a winning game plan for the Mini-Warhawks.

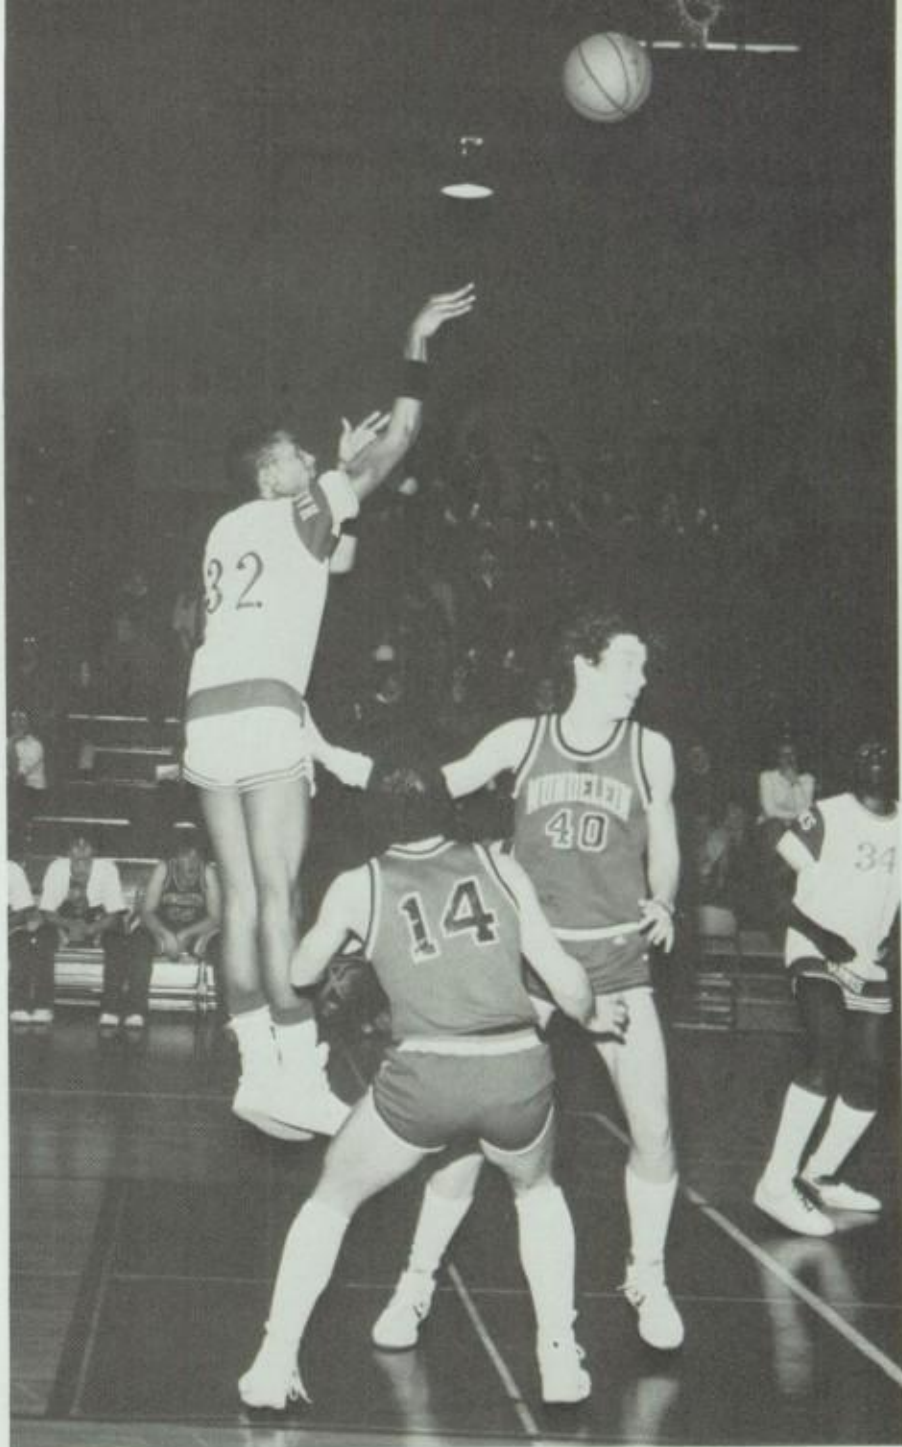

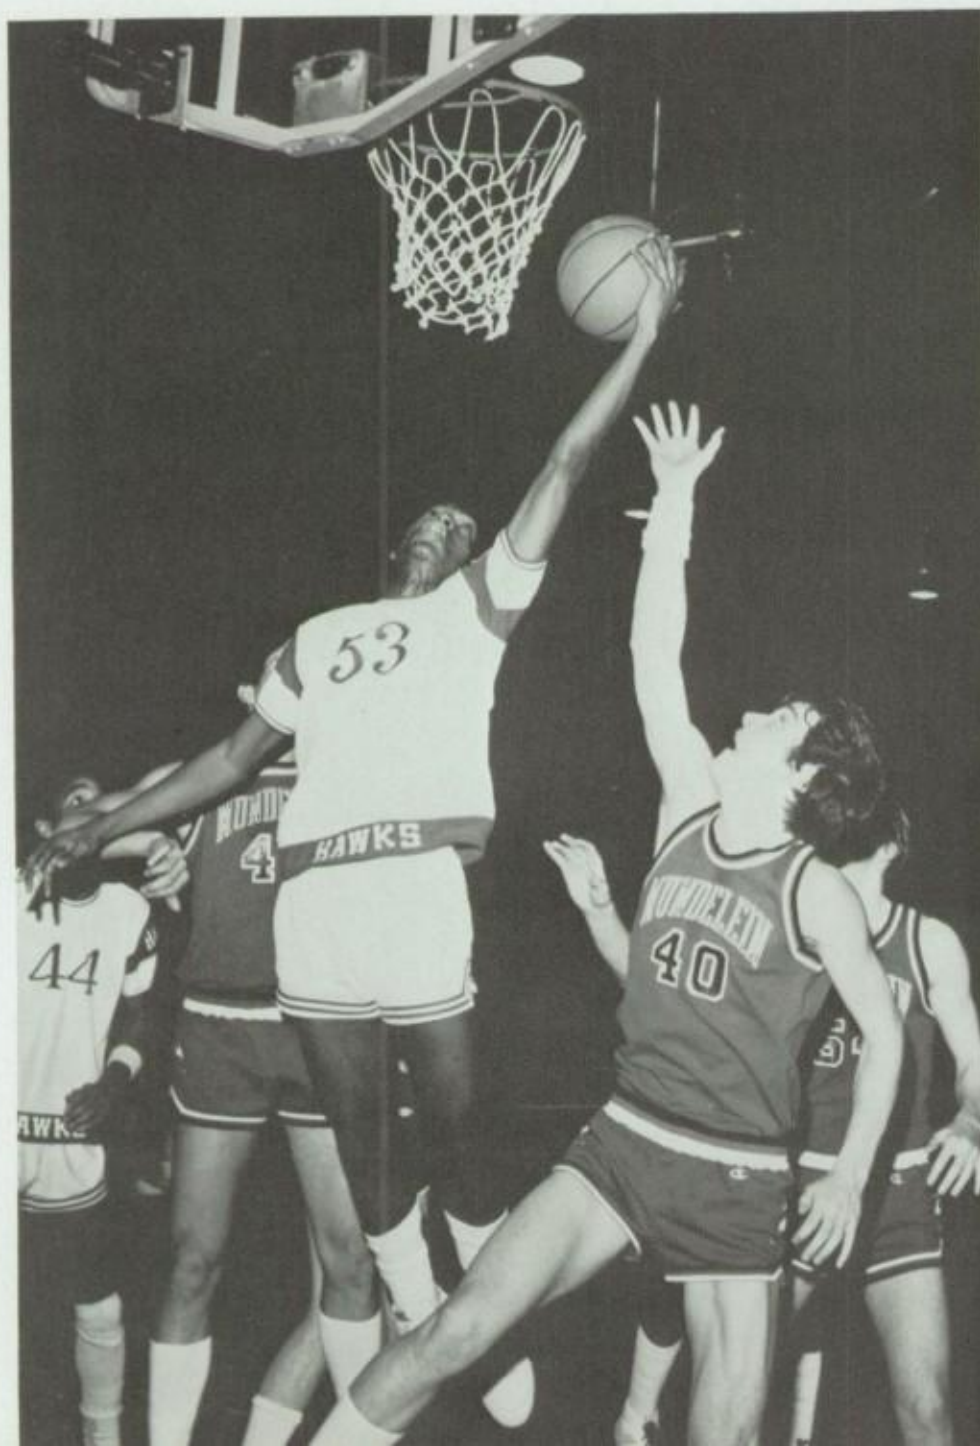

"One Friday, the first of February, James Cole scored a whopping 10 points against Fenton. This game became another win in the Sophomore Hawks' win column."

A last-minute pep talk! Coach Long discusses the game-plan with Kenny Blanchard and Curtis Taylor.

Tompkins takes it to the hoop.

Swish! Otis Bledsoe fires up a jumper for two points.

It's more than a spirit; it's more than a cheer; it's a sense of togetherness and unity.

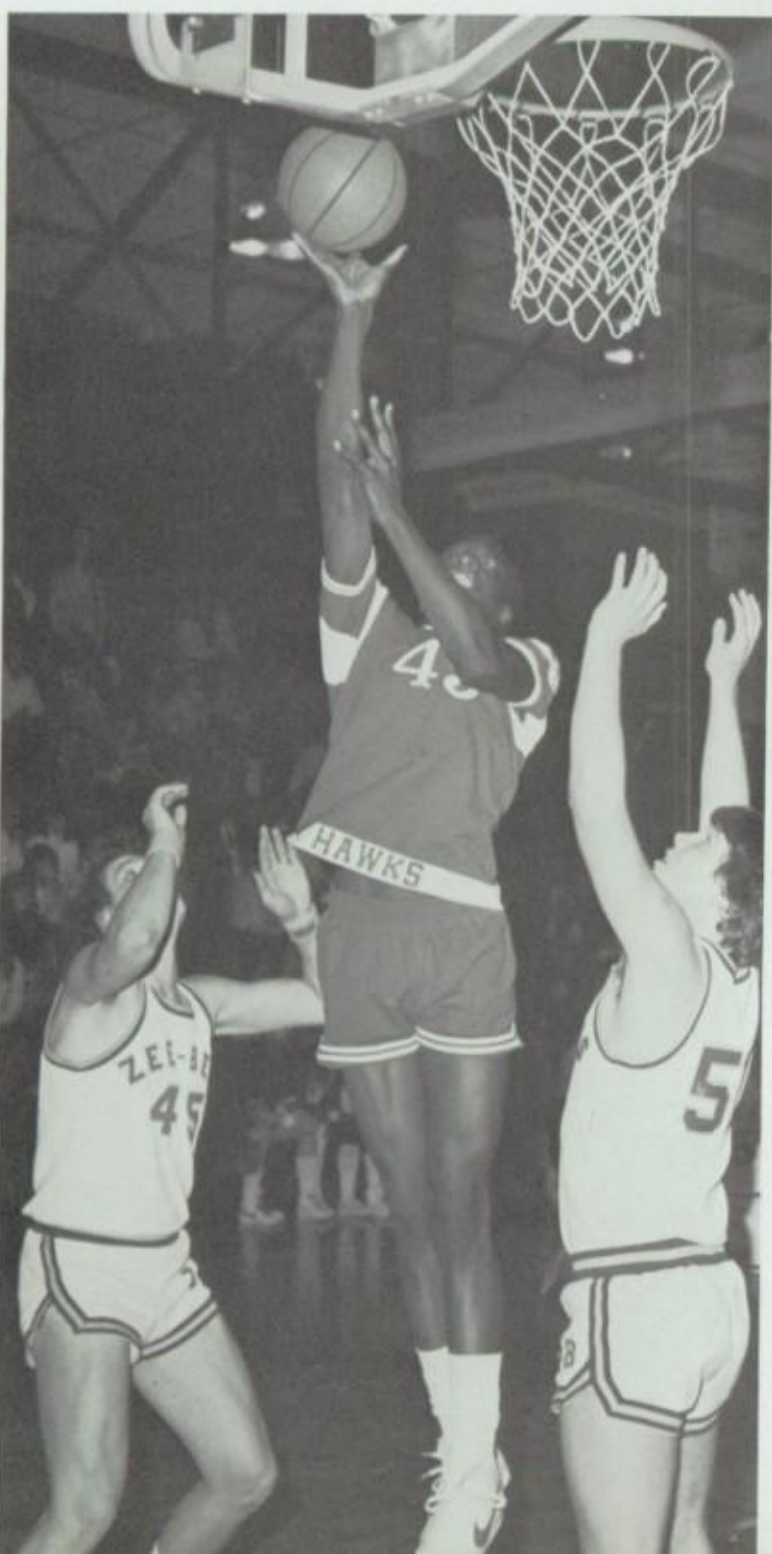

Warhawks on The Move

Eugene quickly moves in while looking for an opening.

After "shaking" two defensive men, J.C. lays it up for an easy two point.

This year's basketball team was quite different from past teams. Not only was the team composed of many different personalities, but there was also a new head coach, Mr. Long. He strove to develop players academically as well as physically. Although the Hawks have a losing record this season, there are many outstanding players on the team. They include Jarrod Coleman, who averaged 16 points per game, Curtis Taylor, Kenny Blanchard, and Sean Collins. The most improved player was Mark Tompkins who earned a starting position late in the season.

The biggest accomplishment for the team was winning its first home game in two years against Stevenson. The Hawks also improved their win-loss record from last year. Often times coming within three or four points of victory, the team showed it had the potential to beat any team in the conference.

A Fight To The End

Returning lettermen from last year are Becky Scott, Lori Rigwood, and Valeri Davis. Moving up from junior varsity are Dionne Mason, Kandy Nichols, and Troyce Coles.

The "Lady Hawks" often came close to winning but fell short every time. In most games they found themselves fighting back to catch up, to steal the victory from their opponent and to fall short of their goals. Nevertheless we have to admire the girls for trying and never giving up. They always fought to the end.

The most exciting game of the season was NC's first win against Niles North. With 8 seconds left to play Irma Buckaloo hit a jump shot to win the game 40-38. When Di Mason was asked what they did in that game that they had not been doing in the others, she replied, "Nothing really. We didn't fall behind, we made less turnovers, and we finally played as a team. Everybody scored." The ladies gained confidence from that game and tried for two in a row only to find themselves holding the short end of the straw.

Leading scorer of the season was Becky Scott, an aggressive ball hustler. She made things happen for the team. She realized her potential by giving 100% for the team. She urged her fellow Lady Hawks to do the same.

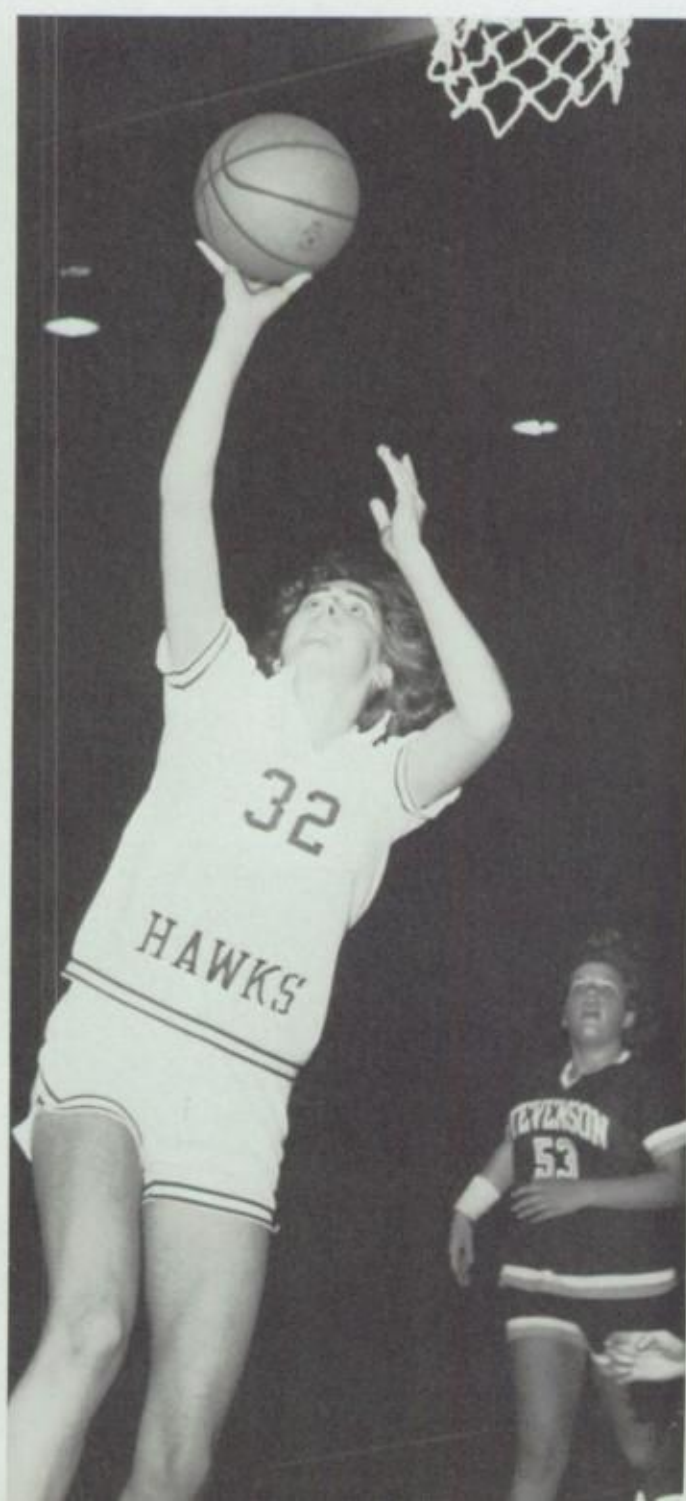

Although the JV team was inexperienced it had the desire and the heart to develop into a good solid basketball team. Captains Yolanda May and Deanne Mason really gave the team the support it needed. They were also fighters. Win or lose, the girls were out to play ball.

SENIOR YEAR ...
GRADUATION ...
... COLLEGE ... ONE
MORE YEAR !

What Is A Junior?

Sure, we were once freshmen . . . sophomores . . . and we will soon be seniors, but being a junior is something special.

We, the Class of 1986, have something that no other class has. We are the class with CLASS. I remember Fabian Melendez saying to me, "We have more pride and respect for ourselves and others. That is why we are so special."

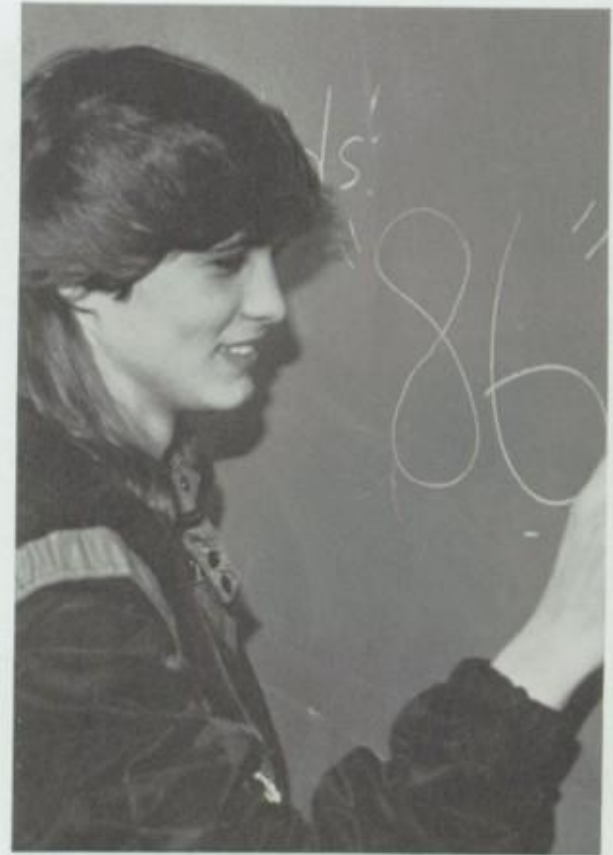

Even the teachers know that we are special. They are always saying we have more intelligence. Craig Morris and others remember the teachers calling us "the cream of the crop." And we are!

Just take a look at us. We are mature. We look at things with an open mind and try to face reality. After all, the real world is what it is all about. '86 is able to cope with the changes and all the happenings and still remain on top.

Together! That is what '86 is all about. Geek Jones once said, "We all stick together." He was right all the way because we have always been together as one family ever since junior high school, and we will be together until the end.

So '86ers . . . let's remain the same. We have everything going for us. In the future when we look back we will see why we are the best. We will see Intelligence . . . Class . . . Respect . . . Maturity . . . Pride . . . Fun and Laughter . . . Friendship . . . We will see ourselves, the Class of '86.

Take care,

Juniors ON TOP

The Junior Class is full of students
Who are striving to succeed.
To do their best on every test
And achieve the credits they need.

Next year the Juniors will be stepping into
A higher education division.
And let me assure you, fellow students,
You made the right decision.

I know this year was filled with quizzes
And loaded with surprise tests.
But, what really mattered about this year
Is that you did your very best.

The Juniors are a smokin' class
They're the class with all the style.
And next year they will be the ones
Who are ON TOP of the pile.

What Is A Sophomore?

In completing the second year of high school, a sophomore is a person who has learned many things. It is a person who knows that the future still holds many new and exciting challenges. This person must be strong enough to face these challenges with a smile! Even though a sophomore will eventually be facing the pressures of adulthood, he or she remembers to have fun, let loose, and enjoy life.

This is a student who also remembers that there are many obstacles that may get in the way. Whether these obstacles are drug abuse, alcoholism, or whatever, a sophomore learns to overcome them. The road to success is within everyone's grasp. In order to reach that road, ambitions have to be strong and commitments have to be defined.

Sophomores enjoy life to its fullest! They take each day one step at a time and make it the best day. They remember to watch their steps, however, because they may lead away from future aspirations. With their heads high, and their best foot forward, they will surely find that a shining star is yet within reach.

DIFFERENCES

HOW HAVE THINGS CHANGED
SINCE YOU WERE A FRESHMAN?

There are freshman sports, a little more school spirit and more smokin' women.

— Aubrey O'Bryant

We get big props now. Everything is cool. But we still know that we are underclassmen.

— Bryant Duncan

We go to more assemblies.

— Sheryl Laing

Things haven't changed too much.

— Kimmy LittleJohn

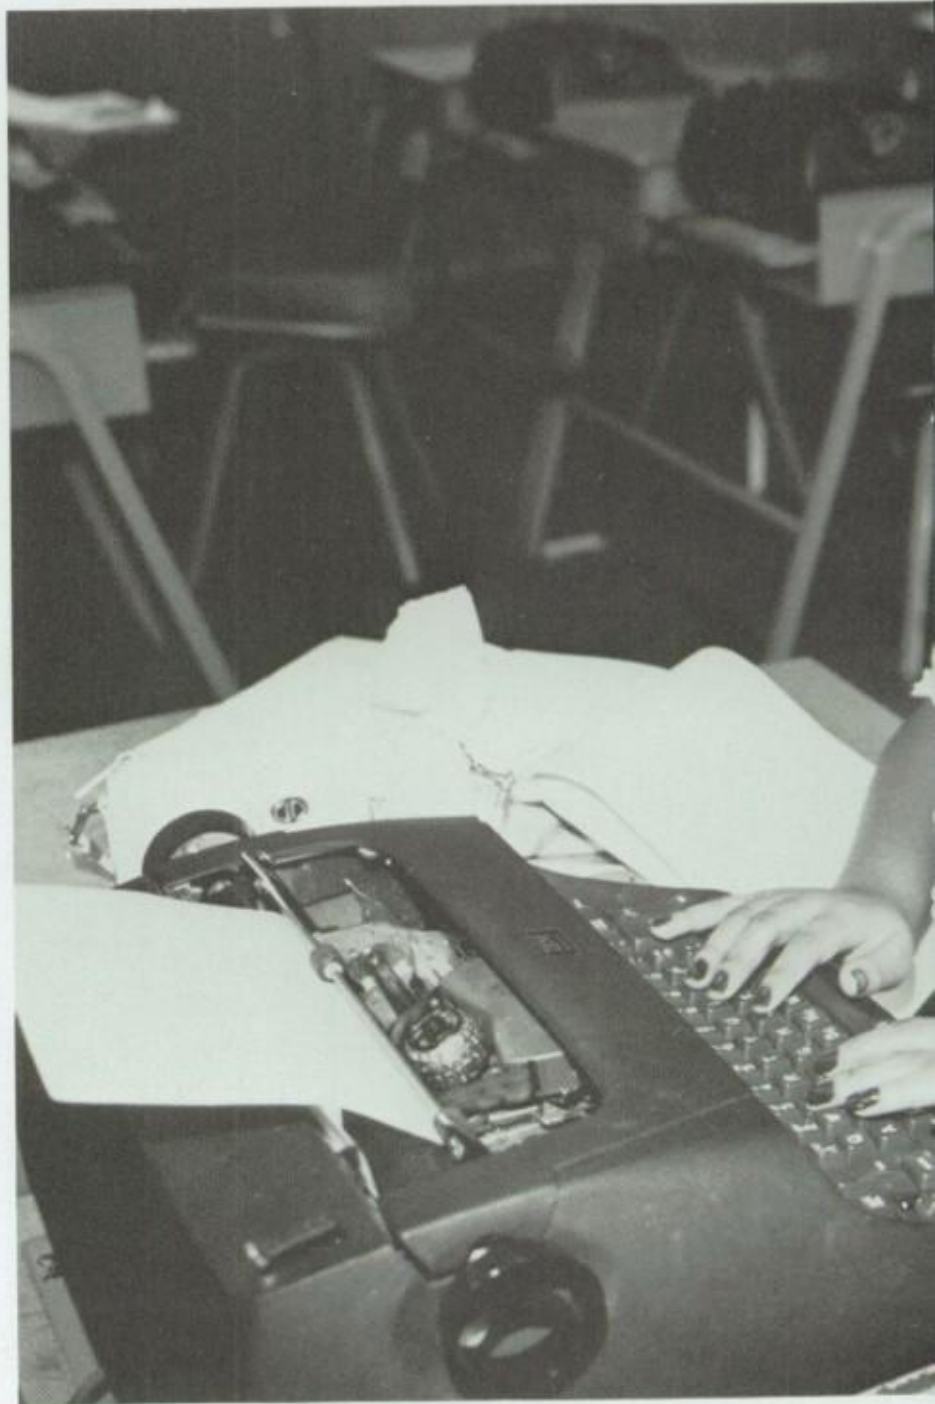

It's more fun to come to school now. When you are a freshman you don't know too many people. Once you become a sophomore you meet new people and you begin to fit in.

— Anonymous

Being a sophomore has its advantages as compared to a freshman. Sophomores are treated with a little more respect than the freshmen.

GROWING UP

Many years have passed since the days of childhood
When things were fun like story books and tales of Robin Hood.

We entered into nursery school so young and, yet, so bold.
We learned so many different things like doing what we were told.

We grew a few more inches, then to grammar school we were sent.
And when we learned to read and write, junior high was where we went.

When things like dances came around and opened up our eyes,
We laughed and danced and what we learned was how to socialize.

When we finally reached our high school days, a process had begun,
We're growing up and growing out, each one of us, one by one.

Make your special moments last and blossom all throughout.
These precious years of growing up is what life is all about.

DRIVER'S TRAINING — VERY BENEFICIAL!

For 16 years, a very patient man has been teaching driver's training to sophomore students. This man, whom many have grown to admire, is Mr. Boegen. Even though there are a lot of pressures that go along with teaching driver's training, Mr. Boegen says that he enjoys teaching it very much. He says, "Most kids are very receptive to the learning situations they are exposed to in driver's training. There is a real possibility that I can help kids avoid serious injury or death through safe driving techniques." Mr. Boegen is also very concerned about student's welfare once they actually do begin to drive. His message to all future drivers is, "Be courteous to others regardless of what they do behind the wheel! Drive defensively, protect yourself! Drive as if your life and well-being depend on it because they do!"

Driver's Training is a learning experience that is very valuable to prospective drivers. Take driving seriously because it is not something that one should take for granted. The decisions that you will make as a driver are numerous. According to Mr. Boegen, "You will be faced with many driving decisions in your immediate future. Use all the information that you have to make those decisions. You must live with them regardless of what others may do." Another very important statement made by Mr. Boegen was, "The two best and two cheapest forms of insurance are wearing seatbelts and driving sober."

With the responsibility of safe driving placed upon the driver, less accidents are likely to occur. It takes fine, patient instructors such as Mr. Boegen to teach safe driving skills. Those who have gone through driver's training successfully owe a great deal of thanks to a man who has dedicated years to secure the well-being of many young lives!

Driver's training, then, is very beneficial. The individual student completing driver's training will possess the knowledge and skills that eventually make a safe driver. Becoming a safe driver will not happen overnight. Being a good, defensive driver takes years of experience. Driving is a privilege given to all. Misusing this privilege can result in serious injury to yourself and others. So think twice before you drink and drive.

What Is A Freshman?

It is one who just graduated from elementary school, a very naive person trying to fit in with "big-time" juniors and seniors. Further a freshman can be defined as a person who just figured out where the cafeteria is after two-hundred days of school. Here at NCCHS we like to think of our freshmen as young teen-agers getting started on a long road to success. The freshmen of NCCHS are looked upon with great respect because they are the future governors of our school.

Freshmen play a very big role in daily high school life. Who else could juniors and seniors find to pick on seven periods a day? Who, besides freshmen, could be given wrong directions to the bathroom. The biggest role freshmen play is being the center of a joke; however, freshmen have a lot to look forward to and that's three more years. They will encounter high points where they are on top of the world, like passing a test that was meant to be flunked. Then there will be times when they feel there is no need to carry on. It may be flunking a test after giving it the best shot.

Remember! In all adversities never give up. Look upon everyday as a challenge! Live everyday as if it were your last! Your dreams can become a reality! Be ready!

What makes a young man attractive? A young lady of NCCHS replied, "If he respects me and the way I feel, he is attractive." The most attractive thing about a young man is the way he carries himself. If he dresses nicely without seeming to put too much effort in grooming himself, it really makes him attractive. Nevertheless, some felt differently! Other young ladies gave less consideration to respect and dressing but focused more on facial features and sexuality. One freshman stated, "As long as he looks good he can be my man." So an attractive young man can be described as one who has average facial features, is nicely dressed, and shows respect.

Young ladies are not the only ones with opinions or feelings, as we have found out by asking some young freshmen gentlemen. We have asked them to speak their minds on the subject of what makes a young lady attractive. Some brave, young freshmen were willing to talk. "I think a girl with a nice personality and good looks who takes care of herself is very attractive," says Benny Burton. Freshmen do have minds of their own. Contrary to what upperclassmen say, freshmen are somewhat intelligent. Even though freshmen are sometimes considered square or, should we say, they don't know how to have fun on dates. Ricky Ash says, "If a girl parties, stays out late and is good looking, she is attractive." Good looking people are all over the place. All you have to do is look in the right places. Some people look too hard and overlook an orchid while looking for a rose.

Freshmen Dating

Here we have one of the well-known freshmen at NCCHS. His name is Sugar. He said that the word dating was "old-fashioned" or "played-out." He said that he just calls it "going out" with the opposite sex. Sugar says that dating is an object for giving and taking. We asked him what his definition of a date was. He said a date to him is being alone with someone that you love or care about and sharing your feelings with that person. He commented, "I will always have time for the lady in my life, and if I don't, I will make time one way or another." His parents like the idea of his spending time with someone he can share his feelings and with whom he can do interesting things.

Almost all the students in this school go out one way or another, but some go out more than others. Just to be on the safe side, you should try to get all your studying out of the way before you go out at night. School comes first in life; parties come second or third.

FACULTY

Dear Teachers,

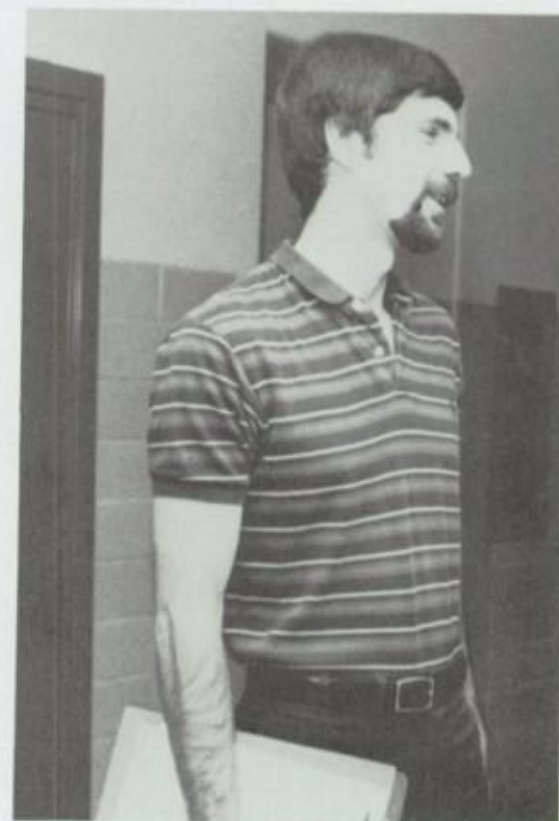

If it weren't for the guidance and teachings of you, the faculty, our school would not have a function. In order to grow, one must learn. In order to learn, one must have someone knowledgeable to guide them and teach them. At times your job may seem difficult. We are well aware that teaching teenagers like us may not be the easiest task to perform, but remember it can be one of the most rewarding experiences you will have ever encountered. You must often put up with frustrating classroom situations, yet, you continuously try to contribute to a student's growing intellect.

Striving for excellence is a daily task for you, the teacher. Hard work and student-teacher interaction are the key factors to an excellent education. We students like to learn as much as we possibly can. We look to you, the teacher, for guidance. What then do you expect from us? You would like us to strive for goals and attain no less than what we are capable. You would like us to "stretch" a little. You would like to see us use our knowledge sensibly and effectively, but most of all, you would like to see us strive for excellence!

We, the students, appreciate the time and patience you give to us. With the knowledge we have gained from you, we are better able to deal with new and challenging situations. We all have benefitted in our own way and on our own level. We are sincerely thankful for your help. Lead on!

Gratefully,

Your Students

Director of Guidance and Curriculum, Mrs. Royce Woods with Larry Clinton

As any person can see the above programs are keeping up with the ever-changing world and giving North Chicago students one of the best ways to explore new and different careers.

Even with the Guidance Department reduced to three counselors, it has consistently continued to implement good programs for the students. The new programs have been initiated to help the students to pick a career or to find a career that may help them and prepare them for their future lives. These programs show that the Guidance Department has not given up on the students and is dedicated to becoming one of the best.

Board of Education and Administration

This year NC has found itself without a principal; yet, in an attempt to strive for the very best, our superintendent, Mr. William Snodgrass has once again taken on the position. Some may think that the two jobs are one and the same; yet, they are very different. Being the superintendent, Mr. Snodgrass must carry out many administrative duties that the principal does not. He must be responsible and be able to carry out district policies. A superintendent must also be able to do an excellent job of budgeting the school's money. He must deal with the public and still keep the school board aware of educational matters at the local, state, and national levels. As principal, Mr. Snodgrass' job is almost totally different. He must keep up with the day to day running of the school, the safety and welfare of the students, and keep an eye on all extra-curricular activities. He also must constantly evaluate the teachers and staff. He still must deal with the every day problems in the school whether they be student- or teacher-related. He meets with parents and maintains constant supervision of the whole school. He keeps order, so that students may have a better learning atmosphere.

Reading Improvement

Skills! Computers! Enrichment! Reading Improvement is a planned attack program on complex skills involved in reading. It seeks to improve proficiency in comprehension accuracy, communication, vocabulary study skills, and thinking skills. It is direct and carefully guided instruction and practice designed to meet the needs of the students. Also, computers that are now being used to drill the students on vocabulary, comprehension and other skills should promote an interest and challenge in reading, as well.

There is a mistaken notion among students that Reading Improvement is directed to non-readers or poor readers only. This is totally untrue. Dr. Navarro quickly points out that reading can and should be improved at all levels. The course meets the individual needs of each student.

Filmstrip! Cassettes! Pamphlets! The Library-Media Center is a force and a source for educational excellence. Its primary purpose is to provide service that will support and supplement the overall educational program at NCCHS. The center is open at all times of the school day and before and after school. Availability of the Library-Media Center and the staff's service are always classified priority.

The library is operated by head librarian, Mrs. Kathy Oglesby, while Ms. Loretta Wilson lends a helping hand at the front desk.

Music and Art

The High Note of Creativity! Music and art are two forms people use to express themselves. If students seriously concentrate on these subjects, perhaps, one day they may go on to become great musicians or artists.

Even though they are highly rated as two of the top career fields, artists and musicians must go through long periods of time without being recognized as good performers. Yet, with dedication and hard work, a musician or an artist may find himself or herself as famous as some of the past performers, such as Bach or Rembrandt.

Many students who take these classes fantasize and wish that maybe someday they will be up on a concert stage or they might have one of their paintings or sculptures on display at the world's very prestigious and finest museum. In other words, they possess the art of thinking beyond the present — beyond the universe. This is an earmark of creativity. Khalid Abdullah commented about his music, "It's a creative outlet for me. I've been playing so long that it has become a natural part of my life."

Emotion, as well as concentration, counts when one expresses herself in painting.

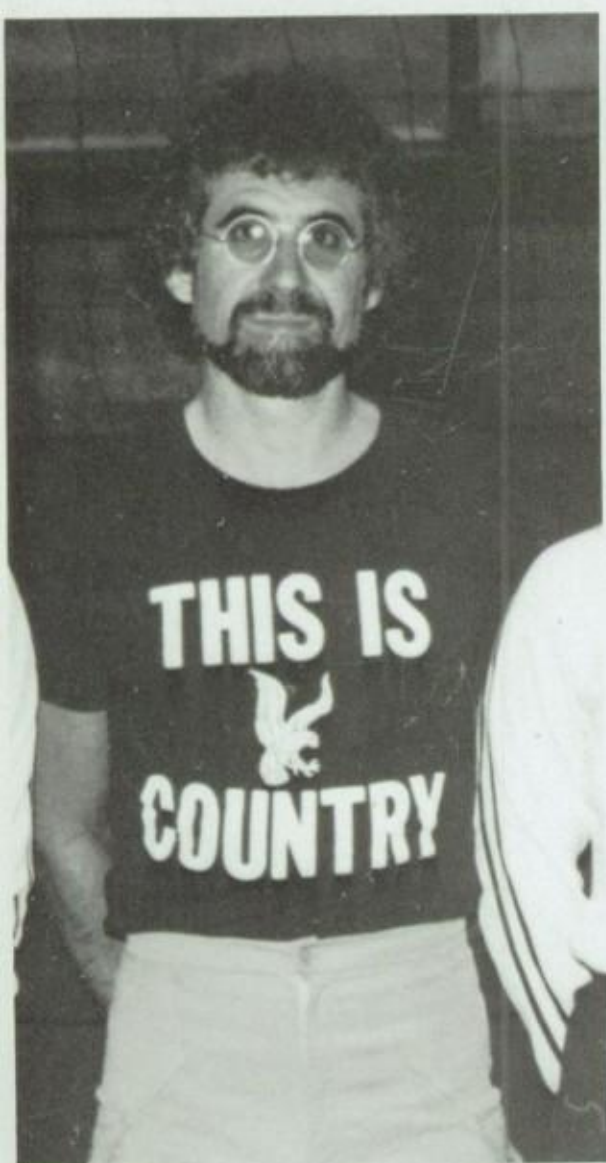

Industrial Arts

Productivity! Creativity! Experience! The various industrial arts classes — wood shop, auto shop, metal shop — are valuable learning experiences for those students interested in the industrial field. These classes are designed to familiarize the student with manual skills. Students learn to create beautiful pieces of wood work while having fun at the same time.

Jorge Colon teaches his wood classes to produce wood work, ranging from airplanes to pieces of furniture. According to Mrs. Van Cleave, "Jorge Colon's general shop section won a first in the state for his manufacturing unit. The class ran a company and mass produced wood airplanes from the planning stage to the stage of production." This type of experience is a valuable learning asset for many students.

Home Economics

Independence! Development! Accomplishment! Independence is one of the things that Mrs. Hu hopes to instill into the minds of her home economic students. She hopes that many of her students will develop a career in the home economics field. To Mrs. Hu, striving for excellence is not an every day task. According to her, "I like to see students try. I look for accomplishment on their own level." Mrs. Van Cleave, chairperson of both the Home Economics and Industrial Arts Departments, concludes, "Home Economics programs prepare students for employment after high school or for entrance into post secondary schooling for careers not requiring an advanced degree."

Social Science

U.S. History! Psychology! Law! These are only three of the social science classes available to the students here at NCCHS. Freshmen take World Civilization while sophomores study U.S. History. Electives are offered in Law, Psychology, and Russian History. For fifteen years, this department has operated at the efficient helm of Mr. Fred Staranowicz.

Special Education

Low in Numbers! High in Ability! Individual Attention! These are the key phrases that describe the Special Education Department at NCCHS. The student-teacher ratio is kept very small so that each teacher can give individual attention to the particular needs of each student enrolled in the program. To serve these individual needs and to nurture these special learning styles are the goals of each teacher in this department. Specifically, motivation, basic academic skills, and respect for achievement are taught.

Business

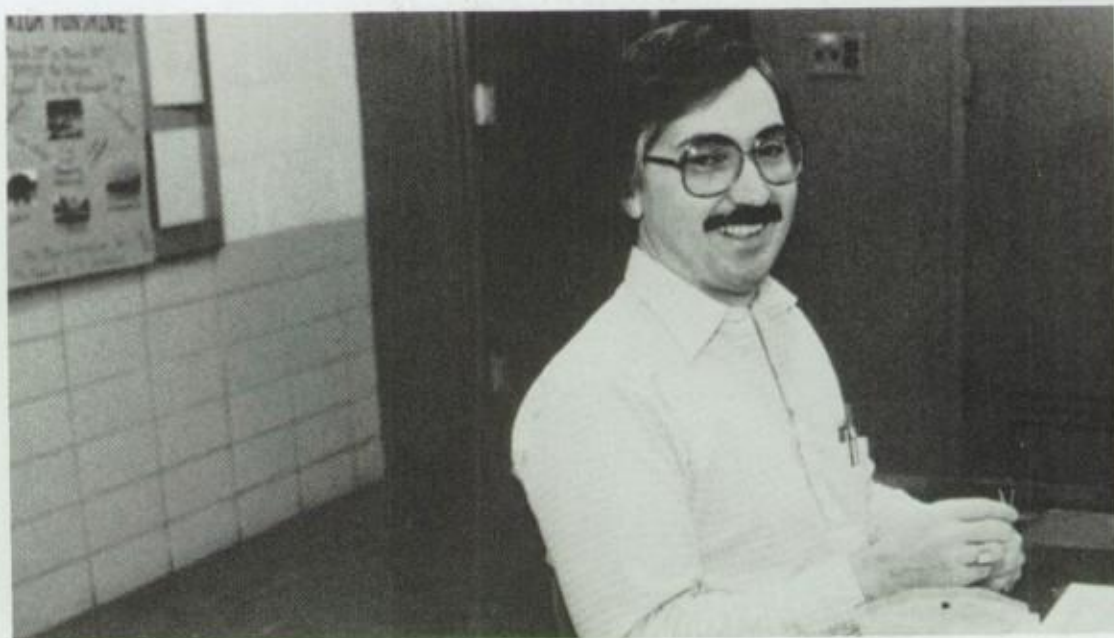

Skill! Experience! Excellence! The business department gives its students the ability to develop skills through working outside of the class classroom and outside of school. The students gain experience by doing projects which involve competing in state-wide major financial accounting tests. Excellence is achieved by hard work and dedication put forth by the students and the teachers.

Responsibility! Self-Discipline! Leadership! These are the qualities Commander Straight and Senior Chief Jones teach their cadets. They instill in each cadet a sense of self-worth and a responsibility to others. Self-discipline is very important also. A cadet must have self-discipline in order to succeed in the ROTC program. Leadership is given to all cadets with high ranks, and they in return show the other cadets how they can gain leadership and success through participation in ROTC.

Although you have to have good grades to achieve a high rank, you also have to gain the respect of your fellow cadets. Without that respect, your rank won't be worth much. The ROTC will teach you that respect for yourself is number one. Respect for and from others will follow.

A Modern Approach! Apple IIe! Trapezoids! The Q3, the new Apple Computer Lab, is equipped to give students experience in using computers. They are very durable and are very capable and at the same time keep track of things very well. Next year the Math Department plans to purchase two more Apple IIe computers and expand the computer room. Mr. Johnson and Mr. Huber feel that with more computers and more room the students would have more time and would be able to get a bigger understanding and more knowledge of the computers.

Vocational Clubs

Dear Students,

Let's face it! A lot of you dislike this school for many reasons, one of which is the lack of school spirit. To those who are involved in one or two clubs — thank you. Without you there wouldn't be school spirit.

School spirit and the lack of it was seen and heard in many events throughout the school year. At the Homecoming Assembly we saw many empty bleachers, and we barely heard any cheering. There wasn't the usual nonstop "hoorays" or "hurrahs"! At the Student Council Assembly we heard candidates talk about this subject as the main topic of their campaign speeches. In Individual Events it was hard to avoid Mr. Kovacek yelling to his team about winning, and sure enough, IE is still one of NC's winning clubs. The trophies explain it all. The yearbook staffers have always done their best to sell each yearbook to each student, especially to those who don't have the spirit to buy one. Contrast to all this, there was a spark of optimism from the foreign language area. Approximately fifty students (and counting!) joined the newly formulated Foreign Language Club. We certainly hope that this club will stay alive from '85 and in the years to come.

This goes to show that we still have a long way to reach our goal . . . but we have to start somewhere at some time. The place to do it is North Chicago and the time is now! So come on! Don't just sit there and wait for something to happen. Don't just wish North Chicago was a better school. Do something about it. Remember, it's you who make the school what it is. Don't ruin it for yourself and for others. Join the clubs and show pride in yourself and for the school. This can be the best school in the whole USA if you want it to be! Keep in mind that you and the clubs you belong to are truly the school's spirit.

Science Seminar

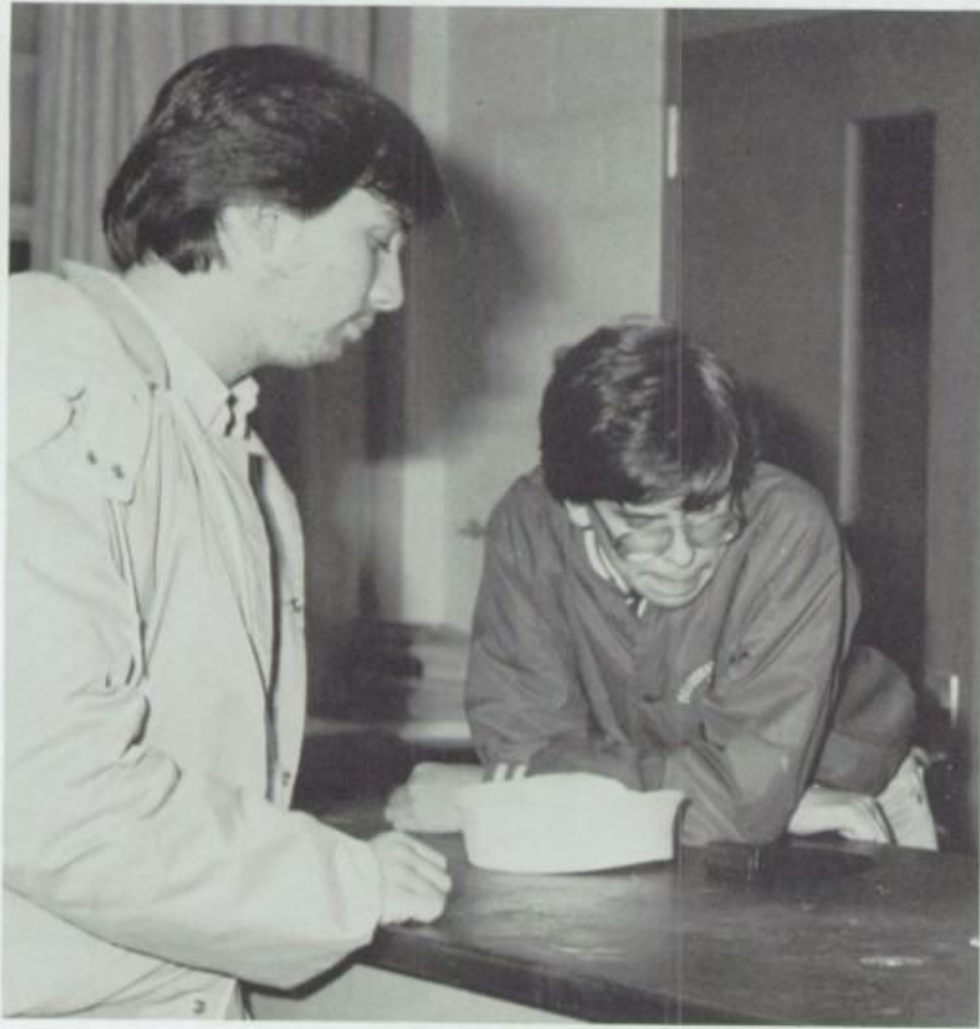

- Still going strong in its 28th year
- Expands student's mind and, in consequence, will be helpful in future career choices
- Open to members of sophomore, junior, and senior classes
- Meets on Tuesday nights, 7:30 P.M.
- Exciting, unusual, scientific field trips
- Chicago Medical School tops excursion list
- Club develops and inspires the students' interest in specific fields of science

I feel that Concert Choir is one big joke! The people who are really serious about learning music are unable to learn for the simple reason that the majority of the students in the class don't give a darn. They have no respect for themselves or their peers. It's a shame that out of 30 people only about 10 really care. What can you do?

From the Editor:

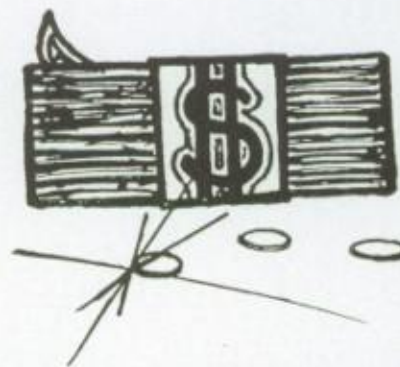

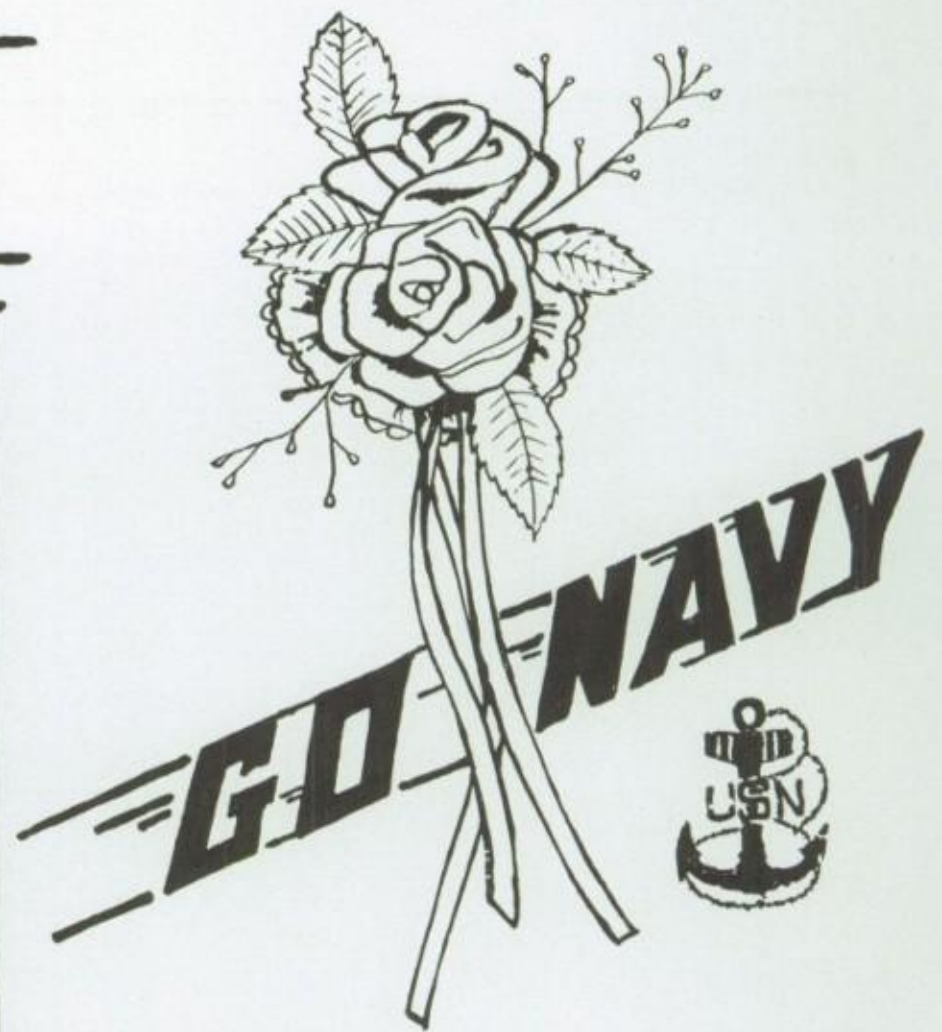

As the 1985 Hawk is an open letter, our future is an open door. In a world of open doors, we must be able to walk through. We must be able to walk through not only with a high school diploma in our hands but with the pride, ability, and purpose that the diploma represents. We must not be distracted! We must not be distracted by the door leading to alcohol and drugs but choose the one leading to college, business, or the trades. We must walk with determination.

No other generation has had the opportunities that we have today. We can be anything we want to be! We can go to any school! We can pursue any goal! We can reach the heights!

So, friends, this is my wish.
Let us plant our feet on solid ground.
Let us be aware.
Let us be prepared.
Let us strive for excellence.

Our letter is ending!
Our future is beginning!

Be No. 1

BE NUMBER ONE! Discover yourself, find out what you're good at, what you do best, and then work at it. Diligently. Patiently. Positively. Enthusiastically. Be the best student, secretary, doctor, engineer, cook, waitress, actor, banker, musician, writer — the very best something. Push yourself. Know you can be number one where it counts . . . to yourself! And that's the toughest competition you'll face because you can't fool yourself. Not really. Start today. Be number one.

Valerie: Best of luck for your future.
You are very intelligent and I hope that you will use that fact to your advantage as you pursue your career and with anything you do in life. It has been my experience that the rewards are given to those who put their best foot forward and who strive to their best.

Yes: it was nice having you in my shortland class. We didn't get to find much out about each other.
But, your friendship will always be remembered. Good luck in the future, and best wishes.

To: Val,

A very stupid but nice girl that I've only known this year. It was a very nice year though. You are a good friend of mine (so far) so don't screw up! Getting to the attendance office. I came in some days mean. But if you were in my shoes you would be too. But anyway I also came in with a good mood. Like today or else
I wouldn't be writing in this year book. Remember me always
